Surat Al-Fatihah: The Story and Lessons

Surah Al-Fatiha, also known as "The Opening," is the first chapter of the Quran and is considered a foundational prayer in Islam. It's a concise yet comprehensive summary of the Quran's core message:

the praise and glorification of Allah, His mercy, and the guidance He provides.

The surah also emphasizes the importance of worshipping Allah alone and seeking His guidance.

Surah Al-Fatiha was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) during a challenging time for him and his followers, facing persecution.
It encapsulates the essence of the Quran, emphasizing the oneness of Allah (Tawhid) and the importance of seeking His guidance.
It's the only Surah that is obligatory to recite in every unit of prayer (Rak'ah).
It's understood as a conversation with Allah, where believers praise Him, acknowledge His sovereignty, and ask for guidance.
The surah highlights Allah's mercy and guidance, while also acknowledging the paths of those who have gone astray and those who have earned Allah's displeasure.

By: Haytham Zeidan
https://archive.org/details/@wazefapress

Resources:
https://surahinstitute.com/tafseer-of-surah-al-fatiha/

https://www.miftaah.org/tour/mother-of-quran

https://islamicwallartstore.com/ar/blogs/islamic-wall-art-blog/understanding-surah-fatiha-the-opening-chapter-of-the-holy-quran

"See also" Brief History Of Islam

https://archive.org/details/brief-history-of-islam-250802-232358